The Academy students in their glee and banjo club concert to-morrow evening, score a success, so it is said.
The banjo club will be assisted by Miss Nora Chase.

Fred Joslyn of West Randolph, a successful merchant of that place, was in town for three days last week on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Cyren Joslyn and other friends.

The closing event of school at the Academy, a novel entertainment by the young ladies of the Academic department, takes place next Tuesday evening. The price of admission has been placed at 15 cents to all parts of the hall.

Mrs. Cynthia Patten who came here a few months since is the oldest person living in town, being in her 98th year. She was older than the late Mrs. Ellis when she died, but was not then really considered a resident of the town.

G. H. Almon went to Northfield the first of the week, where a final public meeting of the citizens was held to take action concerning an electric light plant. He goes to Portland, Me., on business this week Saturday, returning Monday.

Miss Addie West now occupies that part of the unfinished building erected on the site of the Vermont House, that is finished or partly so. Her store across the street is now a meat market, with Mr. Briggs, late from the west, its proprietor.

Mrs. Joseph Huse has taken possession of the George house on Winter street, Charles Kramer and family having vacated and moved to Mrs. Hickock's house on Union st. which was vacated by A. L. Cheney and family, who are now snugly settled in their new house.

R. H. Peck has bought of Mr. Armstrong the house built by him (Peck) on the south side of Cherry Avenue, and which he sold to Mr. Armstrong two years ago. Mr. Peck will soon occupy his house on Congress St. now occupied by Rev. Mr. Rockwell.

The State Woman's Suffrage Association will hold a mid-year convention here next week, opening on Wednesday evening, with a second session Thursday evening. It is expected that the meetings will be held in each one of the three churches, but further announcement will be made.

The Stowe Electric Minstrels and the Eclipse Banjo Club of this place appear at town hall on Friday evening of this week. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of Prof.
Percy Stone's orchestra, which will have charge of the music. Tickets are on sale at Dwinell's drug store.

Remember the interesting lecture "Our Country. Its Problems and Promise," by Rev. George N. Kellogg for the benefit of the public library, at town hall (this) Wednesday evening. Fill the hall, the lecture will be worth hearing. The admission is 20 cents for single admission or 50 cents for the three lectures.

Ex-Gov. C. S. Page of Hyde Park, has requested Chief Engineer E. W.
Webster to purchase and erect in front of the Pleasant street engine house an electric lamp of quite elaborate and appropriate color and design, a gift to the fire department of Morrisville in recognition of their prompt response at the time of the recent fire at his warehouse.

Mr. Jones, representing the company who contracted for putting in the dam, the penstock and water motors at the electric light station was in town last week and again this week. Matters really look very encouraging now for the starting of the plant in a very few days. Let everybody get their lungs in order to "hoor."

One hundred and forty separate books were taken from the public library last Saturday, the largest number ever taken in one day. This is evidence of the growing popularity of this, an institution of which we may all be proud. The popular book, "Samantha at the World's Fair," has just been given the library by Melvin Morse.

This Wednesday afternoon has brought an occasion of special interest at the Methodist church, and a very pleasant and enjoyable reunion of members, friends and former pastors has resulted. Exercises of special interest and of some considerable importance have been held. We go to press too early to furnish a report, but an account of the proceedings will appear next week.

Seventeen car loads of iron pipe for the completion of the new water system have already arrived or are on the way. Chas. L. Woodbury of Burlington, has the contract to complete everything in connection with a completion of the plans undertaken, including the 360,000 gallon reservoir and the furnishing of everything. The pipe will be unloaded and distributed at once and will put the work where it can be pushed very rapidly as soon as the frost is out in the spring. F.
G. Codworth, who has been with Mr.
Woodbury for two years, will have charge of the distribution of the pipe.

George Tyler of Essex Junction, who has been in town the past ten months as foreman on Parker's building contracts, completed his work and went to his home last Thursday.
Mr. Parker goes on the road for Booth of Burlington and Mr. Tyler expects to enter the contractor's field for himself. W. C. Kirby who has been here for several months also went to his home in Richmond Thursday.

The annual meeting of the Morrisville Foundry Company was held in Hendee & Fisk's office on Saturday evening. Hon. G. W. Hendee was elected President, Treasurer and Clerk.
G. W. Hendee, Frank Kenfield, A. O.
Gates, G. M. Powers, J. A. Robinson, O. M. Waterman and A. M. Churchill were elected a Board of Directors, and Frank Kenfield, J. A. Robinson and O. M. Waterman were chosen Managers. The usual handsome dividend was declared, payable at the office of the Treasurer on demand.

Arthur Knapp sober, is an industrious, hard working man; with liquor down, as was his unfortunate condition last Friday night, he is a terror. He was in the aforesaid condition and as alleged had furnished the free raw material that entered largely into the similar condition of Frank Blair, and the latter got somewhat pounded for his further successful enjoyment of the evening's program. After considerable poise and bawling on the streets they were arrested, and on Saturday Knapp's fines and costs for drunkenness and furnishing liquor to Blair amounted pretty nearly to thirty-six dollars, and Blair's figured up pretty nearly ten dollars, and it is quite sure that this young fellow will not be found in the same predicament again.

The ice chest out in the rear of the town hall was thawed out for the occasion.
Officers Cram and Fitch were called out to make the arrests, but it is understood that Blair was in such an advanced stage of inebriation that he was not taken to the lock up as the officers didn't have a team or a stretch along with them.

Recognition of Rev. G. N. Kellogg.

The council called for the examination of Rev. George N. Kellogg, the new pastor of the Congregational church, a new pastor also in the county and State, convened as was expected and it is needless to say that in the candidate with whom they had to deal was found a man in every way thoroughly grounded and furnished with all the essentials that go to make up the successful minister. Refreshments were served in the vestry in season as Deacon Munson remarked, to allow the visiting clergymen and delegates time to stroll about town and see the electric lights, etc., before the public service of Wednesday evening. At 7 p. m. the public service opened with the venerable Rev. Edwin Wheelock, for forty years pastor of the Cong'l church in Cambridge in charge. Mr. Wheelock stated in a concise and characteristic manner the findings of the council, congratulated the church and congregation and the people of Morrisville upon the fact that such a man as their brother the candidate was found to be, had come to their midst.
Preliminary to his sermon Rev. Mr.
Wheelock alluded to the three strong men that were found in Lamoille county's pulpits forty years ago and alluded in a feeling manner to the personal worth and work of the Rev.
John Gleed, then in Waterville, the Rev. James Dougherty then of Johnson, and the Rev. Septimius Robinson, for so many years pastor of the church here in Morrisville. He counted it a liberal education for any young man to be intimately associated with these men, and considered that the present is more largely indebted to their struggles and influence than is realized. Selecting the text "We are laborers together with joy," the speaker presented an interesting and earnest discourse, appropriate to the occasion. Rev. Mr.
Taylor of Hyde Park, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Howard of Jeffersonville, gave the charge to the pastor, basing his remarks upon Gen. 41 chapter 15 and 16th verses.

Deacon P. K. Gleed in the graceful and effective manner of which he is master, welcomed the new pastor to the church, the pulpit, the homes of and the hearts of the people, and to a place in the community. In giving the Right Hand of Fellowship Rev.
Mr. Whitman of Wolcott, made remarks in a very happy vein—giving cordial greeting, and welcoming to the town, the county and the state.
The speaker took occasion to remark that the visitors had followed the suggestion in regard to looking around town for the electric lights, but had failed to find the light, but he would trust that in the Brother to whom he was about to give the hand of Fellowship the community would find a light that would show them the way. Rev. Mr. Nanton of the Methodist church extended greetings in well chosen words. Rev. Dr.
Booth of the Universalist church would also have appeared in behalf of his church, but was absent from town. Rev. Mr. Rockwell of this place, and Rev. Mr. Drew of Stowe, also participated in the service.

Additional Morrisville news on page 8.

HYDE PARK.

F. H. McFarland was in St. Albans over Sunday.

T. H. Page is in Montreal on calf skin business.

H. R. Mack of Hardwick was in town Monday.

Harry Stone and family have moved to Massachusetts.

Herbert Fairbanks leaves for his new home in Chicago next week.

R. L. Currie has moved to St.
Albans, where he has employment in the car shops.

A. N. Williams of Hartford, Conn., special agent of the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, was in town last week.

Several from here attended the Nye reception at Johnson last week. Others who anticipated going were kept at home by illness.

Unique cards, bearing the name Noel Noyes, A. B. Noyes' youngest son, have been received here by many of the relatives and friends.

Interest in bicycling is already quite active. Several are investigating "agencies," and many new wheels may be expected in the place next season.

The Ladies' Home Culture Club held a very interesting session last Wednesday with Mrs. H. J. Lilley.
This week they met at the Phoenix.
The membership is increasing and much interest is manifested at each meeting.

The following figures gives the expenses of this town for the past year: —Bridges $825.91; maintaining poor, $951.18; schools, $3,411.44; highways, $2,431.10; miscellaneous, $878-39; officers balances, $366; interest, $60; total, $8,924.02.

Walter Gilbert of St. Johnsbury was in town over Sunday. While Walter is well pleased with his new position in St. Johnsbury the coy maidens of that place have no charm for him. Lamoille county damsels have full sway with his affections.

C. H. Crane has made some very fine improvements in the interior of his store by repainting and fixing up generally. This, together with his excellent stock of goods, makes his establishment as good as any in the county. Bert is a natural born merchant and has a large and growing trade.

The winter term at the Academy closes next Tuesday. Monday evening a public lecture will be held, at which the question, "Resolved, that Canada ought to be annexed to the United States," will be discussed. There will also be music, recitations, etc., and we are assured the public will be given a fine entertainment. An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, proceeds to be used in purchasing singing books for the school.

The Washingtonian sociable at the vestry Tuesday evening was a success in every particular. A bountiful supper was served from 5 to 8, after which literary and musical exercises appropriate to the occasion were rendered. Short addresses were also made by several. It was a very pleasant occasion and besides good financial results a most enjoyable evening's entertainment was given, for which the ladies in charge are worthy of much credit.

Town Politics.

Town politics are warming up and indications now are that there will be unusual interest in the coming town meeting. There are many of aspirants for the various offices, but who will be the successful ones is a problem just now. For Moderator there will probably be no contest—the first man mentioned usually gets this office—and Col. Sawyer will probably be the man. There will be no opposition to Noyes Wood for Town Clerk. He is a good official and the people will let well enough alone.

For Selectmen Messrs. L. P. Butts and P. T. Denio will doubtless be re-elected. A. C. Davis has been on the Board for several years and will probably step out now, although we hear it whispered that several of his friends wish him to continue in the old position. On the other hand it is suggested that the chairmanship be given to Geo. E. Mudgett, who has had experience. His friends say he would take first place if tendered him.
Geo. Campbell is also talked of for a position on the board. The name of W. G. Bassett has been suggested, but we understand Mr. Bassett positively declines to serve—he has business of his own which claims his full attention. F. H. Strong has many friends who would like to see him a Selectman.

For Listers we hear, though we cannot vouch for it, that H. C. Lanpher will not again accept a position on the Board; in fact we understand he will not take any town office. E.
L. Noyes informs us that under no circumstances will he again act as Lister. In case the above is true there should be at least one man on the Board from this part of town and the best man, could he be prevailed upon to accept, is E. C. White.
In him the town would find a faithful and conscientious official. H. M.
Noyes has had experience in this capacity and would also be a good man, as would either John Gray or Albert Whitcomb. There is a ripple concerning James C.

Crocker, but who the people of the north end want in his place we do not know. The duties are very important and the best men should be selected.

F. H. Strong will perhaps have no opposition for the Treasurership, although it is suggested that as this is a pretty good paying office it should be passed around. There are plenty of good men, good accountants and good penmen, who would creditably fill the position.

V. A. Gilmore, J. S. Leach and A.
L. Mower are mentioned for Overseer of the Poor, aside from the present incumbent. Mr. Lanpher is a good Overseer and his equal in this capacity will be hard to find.

For Collector and First Constable S. B. Waite will, if he wants it again, be given the place. Should he decline it is suggested that Sheriff Stevens would be a good man. For Second Constable L. P. Butts will probably be his own successor.

For members of the Board of School Directors Geo. B. Allen, whose term expires, will doubtless be given a re-election. With the board made up of Messrs. Hulburd, Doty and Allen, the school interests of the town are well looked after.

For Road Commissioner there is some opposition to Silas Whitcomb.
As far as we can learn he has been faithful, has kept the roads in good shape and has worked for the best interests of the town. There are those, however, who think there should be a change and who criticize Mr. W.'s work, and they urge W. C. Maxfield C. M. Gray or E. V. Lilley for the place.

We might go on through the list and enumerate the entire lot of offices, but time and space forbid. There are hosts of good men throughout town whose names we have not mentioned that would fill any of these positions honorably. We have simply mentioned a few that have been suggested to us, and we might fill up a column with just as good names as these. Let the people confer and make the best and wisest selections.
Do not be governed by any "clique" or "ring," but do what is best for the town.

It is the duty of every citizen to attend town meeting, to secure as soon as possible a copy of the Town Report and look it over closely and thoroughly before coming to the meeting, and if there are any exorbitant charges for services, of the report of any officer is not fully understood, enquire about it at the meeting before he is re-elected. There is no use of the town expending money for reports if they are not consulted; that is what they are for and we urge every taxpayer to secure one and scrutinize it closely. Put the best men possible in office and do not vote for anybody simply because he is your friend or a good fellow. Select men with good business tact and let the town affairs be run prudently and as economically as possible.

Another thing: give the young men a show. Encourage them to take an interest in all matters of local government by recognizing their worth and ability. There is nothing that discourages a young man more and causes him to lose interest in town affairs quicker than continually ignoring him and keeping the "old rounders" in office. Put the young men in the front and we will guarantee they will administer official duties faithfully.

Centreville.

S. K. Vaughan was in Franklin county last week on business.

Myra Herrick of Morrisville spent Sunday at Albert Whitcomb's.

H. S. Haskins, late of Morrisville, has moved into the "mill" house.

Riverside.

Willard Whitcomb and Orrin Hadley are on the sick list again.

Mrs. Helen Styles, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving slowly.

Junie Barnes spent several days last week
